If you missed 20 points or more on the exam, you can earn 10 points back by redoing one problem. If you missed less than 20 points you can earn half of the points back by redoing one problem, but must complete the whole problem.

- You will rework only one problem, specified below. It must be your own work.
- If I marked on the front page of your exam which problem to redo, then redo that problem.
- If you missed 50% or more of one of the problems 2, 4, 5 or 7, then you can rework that problem.
- Else if you missed 50% of more on problem 3, then redo problem 3.
