Essential Standard 3.0 Understand Multimedia Production

Alice Project
You will be reading the book titled “The Bully at Bulford High” by Paul Langan. Each day you will be required to read at least 5 pages of the book or 15 minutes whichever is comes first. You will need to document every day in your daily log on what you have read that day. You will need to reflect on what you have read in 2 to 3 sentences (in log). A log will be provided for you. Your final project will need to be a project in Alice World on what you learned from the book.

Objective: Students will learn to write and express ideas on a storyboard to create an Alice World. Students will take prior knowledge of Alice and apply to Alice project.

Criteria for Success:
__ You will need to have completed your storyboard and reflection pages before you can start on your world.
__ Your storyboard must match what is being described in your world.
__ Your world must have at least three scenes that should include: title, author and picture) and last scene should include: your name, class, date and picture. You can use any objects in your world.
__Your Alice World project is due _________________.
__ If you do not complete works you will not be able to participate in the end of year activities.

I have also provided you a rubric to reference while creating your Alice World. DO NOT WRITE IN PEN OR MARKER POINTS WILL BE TAKEN OFF.
Each Friday there will be documentation that relates to Bullying.

COMMENTS: